

The scene above is taken from the great stone macehead of Narmer, which J. E. Quibell discovered at Hierakonpolis in 1898. There is a summary of the spoil taken by Narmer during his wars, namely "cows, 400,000      goats, 1,422,000.         and captives, 120,000.
